Presidents Report June 2021 SMA Newsletter

Sincere thanks to everyone who contributed to the exhibition at Glenbrook recently .Although it was very short at less than two days in all it made a net profit of $786 including commission on sales of $392 .entry fees of $531 and raffle proceeds of $157.particular thanks to Phil Budge and a small band who transported the exhibition equipment to and from the storage shed at Lawson.

At this months members meeting we are delighted to welcome Dennis West as our demonstrator in Watercolor. Next month our demonstrator will be Dario Falzon and if you cant recall his work or missed his previous demonstration look him up on the internet.

Don't forget the monthly paint together at St Andrews church hall in Wentworth Falls starting at 10 am until 1230/1300 Tea and coffee included. [Thursday 1 July]

As it is a bit cold for plein air we will go to visit the Archibald, Wynne and Sulman prizes exhibition at the AGNSW on Thursday 24 June. Catch the 0749 train from Wentworth Falls or the equivalent from your local stop , upstairs in the second carriage from the front and meet near the exit at Central before proceeding to the train for Martin place and the gallery.

The list for the midyear luncheon at Katoomba RSL on 22 July will be out for you to add your name if you want to go.

Take care, travel safely and keep warm

Peter
